

We are delighted to share with you some of the highlights of the 31st INF-FNI Congress.

The beach at Tambaba was a beautiful setting for the INF-FNI Congress. If you were fortunate enough to be a part of the 31st Congress, you know exactly what we mean. If you were not there, you missed one of the best. Hotel accommodations were very good, the food service was excellent and the transportation to and from the events and beach were very useful. There was something for everyone at the outdoor crafts fair and it was a perfect place for some souvenir shopping.

The theme of "Worldwide Naturism" was presented To deal with the serious Issues of where naturism Advances from here.

Conducted by Mick Ayers, with contributions from Barb Hadley

Three working groups were presented with the question "What would be the most important activity that federations would want INF to do?"

A list of the responses will be found on the INF-FNI website.

A motion addressing the EU budget for youth, sports and families was passed with 191 votes for, 15 against and 18 abstentions.

For a complete report, please see the INF-FNI website, federation's

For the first time in its long history, the INF-FNI elected a woman president. Sieglinde Ivo of Austria promises a full schedule for the next 4 years.

A list of all election results will be on the website.

"The amount of monies the Brazilian government and federation paid for this Congress must be overwhelming."
George Volak, VP

"This is without a doubt the best meeting room we have had and the best interpreter booths we have had."
Comment of delegate

"The convenience of the meeting room, the restaurant for lunch so nearby, the various shops with all their local crafts made my entire stay delightful."
Delegate comment

To sum up the 31st inf-fni Congress, it would be.....

VIVA TAMBABA!!!!!!!!!!!!!!
Thank you all, the Brazilian Federation and all your officers, the Sonata Club and your members and the Brazilian Tourism Bureau for making this both an historic and exciting Congress!
If you missed this amazing event, know that we missed you too. So, mark your calendars now! See you in Italy in 2010.
